"There Goes The Bride"

Our wedding day was nothin' short of perfect
Everything so beautifully arranged
Then out of the blue right before we said 'I do'
She turned and ran like she'd gone insane

There goes the bride you can kiss that girl goodbye
I guess she really takes the cake this time
I need to find a hole that I can crawl inside
Here comes my heartache, there goes the bride

She left me standin' there at the altar
I was embarrassed and confused
What can I have done that would make that little girl run
Like someone had set fire to her shoes

There goes the bride you can kiss that girl goodbye
I guess she really takes the cake this time
I need to find a hole that I can crawl inside
Here comes my heartache, there goes the bride

There goes the bride you can kiss that girl goodbye
I guess she really takes the cake this time
I need to find a hole that I can crawl inside
Here comes my heartache, there goes the bride
Here comes my heartache, there goes the bride
There she goes
