(Knock, knock)
Baby, won't you let me in
I've been away
But I'm back again

Cross your heart
And say your prayers
Your backdoor man's
Sneaking up the stairs (ohh)

You don't have
To fantasize (no, no, no)
All you got to do
Is open your eyes

And call me love
Your backdoor man
Do it to it
Your backdoor man
Call me love
Your backdoor man

Give you all the love I can
Come on, baby, take my hand
Come and love your backdoor man

Sing it (no, no, no, no, no)
Yes (no, no, no, no, no)
Uh (no, no, no, no, no) uh

(Bang, bang)
Baby, gonna shoot you down
I've been away
But I'm back in town

Close your eyes and count to ten
Your backdoor man's
Gonna get you again (ohh)

You don't have
To fantasize (no, no, no)
All you got to do

Is open your eyes

And call me love
Your backdoor man
Do it to it
Your backdoor man
Call me love
Your backdoor man

Baby, you just sit and
Dream of ways to tease
Would it shock you if
You thought of ways to please

Did they tell you love would hurt
And it's only best to flirt
Can you hear me, are you lonely
Girl, it's only love you need, uh huh

Call me love
Your backdoor man
Do it to it
Your backdoor man
Call me love
Your backdoor man

Give you all the love I can
Come on, baby, take my hand
Come and love your backdoor man

(No, no, no, no, no)
Say it (no, no, no, no, no)
All right (no, no, no, no, no)
(No, no, no, no, no)...
