Shes not real, she's the spokes on a wheel
But the way she moves will take you where you wanna go
And you're the one that she steals from
But if not you she's gonna find somebody else
Cause nothing is ever enough
Chorus
And you love her but you know youve got to leave her
Cause she's leaving you with no way out
Shes a jewel in the nose of a fool
Shes beautiful but she don't know who she is
And you're a wreck because you suspect
That shell never be who she was years ago
Cause nothing is ever enough
Chorus
Bridge
Maybe you don't see it
But she's waiting everywhere you're gonna go
In the faces of the people who look at you
Like someone that they know
Chorus
