I wasn't the highschool All-Star quarterback
I graduated second-to-last in my class
But I learned economics in a union-code
When the company sent my job down in Mexico
Bin' barely gettin' by for most of my life
You're the first thing I've done right.

--CHORUS--

I know I'm a long shot baby but with you
I'm a sure thing
Maybe the odds are against but odds don't mean
nothin' to me
Cause' love makes the impossible believable
And you make me unbeatable.

I got some money down on an acre of land
I wanna carve us a life out of brush and sand
At the end of the day and the settin' sun
We can kick back and watch our children run
I'll never give in and I'll never give up
And I'll never give less than all my love

--CHORUS--

I know I'm a long shot baby but with you
I'm a sure thing
Maybe the odds are against but odds don't mean
nothin' to me
Cause' love makes the impossible believable
And you make me unbeatable.

Funny how the love of a perfect girl
Can make a man like me think he could change the world

--CHORUS--

I know I'm a long shot baby but with you
I'm a sure thing
Maybe the odds are against but odds don't mean

nothin' to me
Cause' love makes the impossible believable
And you make me
Girl, you make me unbeatable.
