They got 50 cent drafts at the Legion bar
A band playin' Skynard and CCR
The place is packed and they're still pilin' in Hope nobody calls the cops again

Hey, oh - havin' too much fun
Worked all week now the work's all done
Everybody's feelin' alright
So what do you say - let's stay up all night
Up all night

Sally called her sitter, said she'd be home late
Jenny threw beer in her boyfriend's face
Tommy passed out still holdin' his glass
Someone took a marker, drew a big moustache

Hey, oh - havin' too much fun
Worked all week now the work's all done
Everybody's feelin' alright
So what do you say - let's stay up all night
Up all night

The joint's still rockin' at a quarter-to-two
We drank all the beer and the whiskey, too
The band just kicked off "Gimme Three Steps"
Ain't nobody goin' home just yet

Hey, oh - havin' too much fun
Worked all week now the work's all done
Everybody's feelin' alright
So what do you say - let's stay up all night
Up all night
