Thank God for Visine, my eyes look like a dang crowd scene

Caffeine my friend, well, hey, buddy here we go again
I punch in and I try to wake up
But Hercules couldn't keep this pace up

Lovin' you is killin' me, no mercy, no sleep
Just how lucky can one man be
I'll rest when I rest in peace, lovin' you is killin' me

Five o'clock I punch out, drive eighty over to your house
Takin' curves on two wheels, if the law don't get me
Lovin' You Is killin' Me
Then the speed sure will, it ain't the smartest thing I've done
I know, but, hey, honey, what a way to go

Lovin' you is killin' me, no mercy, no sleep
Just how lucky can one man be
I'll rest when I rest in peace, lovin' you is killin' me

I'll be lucky if I live till dawn
So much for dieing with my love boots on

Lovin' you is killin' me, no mercy, no sleep
Just how lucky can one man be
I'll rest when I rest in peace
Who wants to die naturally, lovin' you is killin' me

Oh, yeah
