There's a chain on the factory gate
They say they're gonna shut it down
There's a whole lot of hopeless heads
Hangin' all around this town
There's a sky up above me lately
Showin' more black than blue
Woo, hoo, hoo - baby, then there's you

Hey little girl, sun on your shoulders
And the light in your eyes
I got a feelin' you ain't been readin' the news
These days they say there's no silver linin'
Still you find it every time
The see the rain, you see the sunshine

You know I love to watch you
Water the roses by the garden gate
Smilin' like maybe you know somethin'
The world ain't figured out yet
Well, here I am with my glass half empty
Need a little shot of you
Woo, hoo, hoo - just one shot of you

Hey little girl, sun on your shoulders
And the light in your eyes
I got a feelin' you ain't been readin' the news
These days they say there's no silver linin'
Still you find it every time
The see the rain, you see the sunshine

Woo, hoo, hoo - baby then there's you
Hey little girl, sun on your shoulders
Hey little girl, sun on your shoulders
And the light in your eyes
I got a feelin' you ain't been readin' the news
These days they say there's no silver linin'
Still you find it every time
The see the rain, you see the sunshine
You see the sunshine
