every time
I feel alone
every time
I think to my own world
every time
that I can't really smile I miss you
this is what I realize every time my team loses the match every time I watch on TV the president I gonna puke and I'm not wonder why I want to kill you with my hands tonight

all around the people are talking about the war
are talking about their jobs well its not easy to realize this people
are not friend of mine
the happiness still so far

this is not disneyland (this is not disneyland)

nobody is looking for a better world nobody is trying to change what is wrong
these people

(this is not disneyland)
