I was shot when I saw him
I guess he was lookin' for me
So I crowded from deep dark sea
I came upon the sand and there he would be
And he said he was a sailor
As he sat and opened up to me
His ship had sank and a mermaid had saved him
And he said she looked like me
Oh yeah she looked like me

Did you say you saw a mermaid?
And she looks a little like me
I will always be your mermaid
Callin' out to me
Your mer-baby

All through the day
I'd dream about you
I would call upon the sleepin' waves
I can't live one more day without you
I swore I'd find a way
To bring him everything
So I asked my father Titan
To break down and open up the sea
I just hope that you weren't frightened
'Cause if he'd come he'd see
I'd bring him everything

So come on say you love the mermaid
And she looks a little like me
I will always be your mermaid
Swimmin' in the sea. . .your'e mer-baby
Did you know I love the Earthman
And he looks a little like you
I want you to be my merman
Swimmin' in the sea. . .and make merbabie's

Atlantic, Pacific, the Indian Ocean
The Mediterranean Sea
The Baltic, ???
The Black and the Red Sea

The IG, Arabian, Gulf
Arctic, Antarctic
The Channel Sea
Are all coming into me

You're not a man anymore
You're not the same

Did you say you love the mermaid?
And she looks a little like me
I will always be your mermaid
Drowning out to sea
You're mer-baby
And you know I love the Earthman
And he looks a little like you
Baby now you are my merman
Swimmin' in the sea
And make merbabie's
