I can hear the phone ringin'
But I can't pick it up
I guess they'll have to leave a message
'Cause my mind is on the run
They want to talk about her leavin'
To put my heart at ease
But there's no reachin' me

'Cause I'm not home right now
I'm in a small town church where we said our vows
I'm in beachfront room where we honeymooned
I'm down in Love's Caf © where we met everyday
I'm here in this house
But I'm not home right now

I can hear the people knockin'
They just wanna help me out
But there's no way I can answer
When I'm nowhere to be found
And I do appreciate it
'Cause I could sure use a friend
But I can't let them in

'Cause I'm not home right now
I'm in a small town church where we said our vows
I'm in beachfront room where we honeymooned
I'm down in Love's Caf © where we met everyday
I'm here in this house
But I'm not home right now

I'm down at Love's Caf © where we met everyday
I'm here in this house
But I'm not home right now
No, I'm not home right now
