Sitting in fields
Surrounded by daisies
Was her fate

She loves him, she loves him not
He loves her but he forgot
Now it's too late

She's down to 3 petals
She hears the whistle from the kettle
But should she stay?

'Cos running never solves anything
Running changes nothing
You better stay

But if you're running to another's arms
Runing to another's charms
Then go away

Indigo daisies
Indigo daisies

Sitting on the train
Surrounding by faces
She doesn't know

She doesn't have a book to read
The journey takes infinity
She sucks a polo

She remembers the pavilion
He made her feel
A million sweeter days

'Cos running never solves anything
Running changes nothing
You better stay

But if you're running to another's arms
Runing to another's charms
Then go away

Indigo daisies
Indigo daisies

'Cos running never solves anything
Running changes nothing
You better stay

But if you're running to another's arms
Runing to another's charms
Then go away

Indigo daisies
Indigo daisies

Indigo daisies
Indigo daisies

Running never solves anything
Running never solves anything

'Cause there was a time
I was surrounded
By beautiful flowers

There was a time
I was surrounded
By beautiful flowers

Indigo daisies
Indigo daisies
