Well traffic's kind of bad
They're widening easy street
To fit more SUV's, they're planting baby trees
To grow to shady peaks

A little shelter from the sun
Or the upper tax bracket
Here on the cul-de-sac we're not giving back
Until the community repents

'Cause we can't afford to be generous
There's closing costs and a narrow margin
So go earn your degree and we'll take you out to lunch
You can work for us but you gotta eat 'em all up

Yeah one more mouth full and we will be happy then
Yeah one more mouth full and we will be happy then

Out west they're moving dirt
To make a greater Omaha
Another franchise sold
So there's even more restaurants per capita

And they all got a drive-through
Yeah who's got time to dine
Although the floors are clean
The color scheme it compliments me every time

So no one starves in this cattle town
The semis pass making squealing sounds
And it's all you can eat and they will never get enough
They'll be feeding us, they'll be feeding on us

Just one more mouthful and they will be happy then
Yeah one more mouth full and we will be happy then

All those golden fields, lovely empty space
They're building drug stores now until none remains
I've been driving now for 100 blocks
Saw 50 Come and Go's, 60 parking lots

Yeah one more mouthful and they will be happy then

Yeah one more mouth full and we will be happy then

One more, yeah one more, one more, one more, one more

Just one more, just one more, just one more, just one
