I know i don't control you
I know i don't own you
But i still feel a sense of pride
'cause i know what we have is a lie
It's a lie and it always used to frighten me
Now i know it'll always be a part of me
It's a lie

I know sometimes we're strangers
I know there's still some danger
But i still feel a sense of pride
'cause i know what we have is a lie
It's a lie and it always used to frighten me
Now i know it'll always be a part of me
It's a lie

A lie more than survive
More than get by
More than our lives
It's a lie

I know we'll be together
I know forever
Baby, i love you too my eyes
And you know what we have is a lie
It's a lie and it always used to frighten me
Now i know it'll always be a part of me
It's a lie

It's a lie and it always used to frighten me
Now i know it'll always be a part of me
It's a lie

It's a lie
