On a point in time-present undefined
And it's getting cold outside Situation stactical-for reasons you don't know Just short of indecision
And it's getting cold outside
And it's getting cold outside
For you own trepidation
Refer to new perspexion See yourself as others see you in reverse red can appear blue Wanna go outside Don't you wanna go outside
Tobi & Kathi:
Been stuck inside your room so stranded-like and full of doom all year
Time out for good behavior adds up to what you want it to what you wanna, what you wanna do.
That informs a motivationcasual or obligation-fictitious circumstance suspending all your future plans wait for you outside.
If this false started motion believes its own propulsion tran-sending space and time, then I'll wait for you outside
then I'll wait for you outside
Tobi & Kathi:
Been so long since I've seen you So much has changed, you sound the same We're meeting at this place I wanna see you, see your face again
We're all waiting, we're all waiting here.
