I remember the day you left me heartbroken,
Now I'm hunted by the day when you told me it's over.
I lost a part of me when you walked away.
No, no, no,
Girl, I've got something to say.

Chorus:
So hear me out loud!
They told you I was creeping,
That's all lies!
They told you I cheated,
That's all lies!
So hear me, I'm under,
No, no!
You need to hear the truth,
Let me tell you the truth!

No, I didn't know I'd see her that night,
I didn't feel no lost inside,
All I could see was you in my eyes,
Forever I thought you'd be mine.
I guess I let them take you away,
Cause your girlfriends filled your head with lies,
And you walked away, you walked away.

Feeling alone now, it's over,
In all this pentagram I'm a lost soldier.
My mind is spinning like I'm on a roller coaster,
It's about time I told you the truth.

Chorus:
So hear me out loud!
They told you I was creeping,
That's all lies!
They told you I cheated,
That's all lies!
So hear me, I'm under,
No, no!
You need to hear the truth,
Let me tell you the truth!

No, I didn't know I'd see her that night,
I didn't feel no lost inside,
All I could see was you in my eyes,
Forever I thought you'd be mine.
I guess I let them take you away,
Cause your girlfriends filled your head with lies,
And you walked away, you walked away.

I know we're stoned as dead, we just can't go back,
But I loved you so much it hurts, and baby girl, that's a fact
But they took my baby girl away from me, left me lonely

Chorus:
So hear me out loud!
They told you I was creeping,
That's all lies!
They told you I cheated,
That's all lies!
So hear me, I'm under,
No, no!
You need to hear the truth,
Let me tell you the truth!

No, I didn't know I'd see her that night,
I didn't feel no lost inside,
All I could see was you in my eyes,
Forever I thought you'd be mine.
I guess I let them take you away,
'Cause your girlfriends filled your head with lies,
And you walked away, you walked away.

And now you know the truth!
