"Get The Time"

When I get the time
I'd like to sit down
Just a couple few
and write a little rhyme for you
What you mean to me
I'd tell you

Yeah!

I'd love to sit down and write a little rhyme for you
When I get the time
Just a couple few
I'd tell you
When I get the time
What you mean to me
Put it all down and pick you up I'd I'd say
throw it all away
the world is

And will there come a day
me and you tonight
living that dream
within your arms?
when nothing is standing in our way?
I'll make it happen someday
Well, I'll make it happen someday I'll make it happen
I'll make it happen someday
When I get the time
I gotta get the time
yeah.....

for places inside
I've never been I'd look in your eyes
before
I gotta find somemore
When I get the time
and I know you don't owe me anything

to live my life
When I get the guts
for me
I'd be the friend that you said you once knew and to do, what I wanna do or will there come a day when we give up and I'd have
and turn away
nothing left nothing left except I'd have all the time in the world
all of the time in the world look through the window
time to remember
time to cry
Time to cry.....
I gotta get the time.....
Where can I find the time?
Where can I find, where can I find the time?
get the time
