"Green"

I can't believe what you just said

You'd sell your soul for a dollar bill

I can see the signs in your eyes
The signs that make an honest man lie

You've got green on your mind

Now you've got green in your eyes

Say green is sex, green is power

I think you better go take a shower

Such filthy thoughts

You're seeing green

I'm seeing red

I can't believe what you just said

I heard your song, then I heard your spiel

Music as money has gone to your head
You're seeing green, I'm seeing red

I used to listen and we'd share your love

But now I want to steal your heart

It didn't matter that I had none to give

I've got green on my face
Claim it as mine before the bidding starts

Got jealous green I can taste

And yet I covet what I hate Bitter-green bile because you're vile
