i know i don't control you i know i don't own you
but i still feel a sense of pride
'cause i know what we have is a lie it's a lie and it always used to frighten me now i know it'll always be a part of me
it's a lie

i know sometimes we're strangers i know there's still some danger
but i still feel a sense of pride
now i know it'll always be a part of me
it's a lie

a lie more than survive more than get by more than our lives
it's a lie

i know we'll be together i know forever baby, i love you too my eyes and you know what we have is a lie
it's a lie and it always used to frighten me
now i know it'll always be a part of me
it's a lie

now i know it'll always be a part of me
it's a lie

it's a lie
