(Lyrics by M. Aukerman, Music by T. Lombardo)

Don't you think it's time I let you know

Don't you think I should before you go

I'm not gonna let you get away

'cause I want to fuck you night and day

I'm a pervert

I like to go out on dates

See a movie, communicate

We'll go home and have some fun

I'll tell you, sure you're the only one

Then when I leave your house I smell of sex

* Then I know I'm a pervert, because I like it

Then I know I'm a pervert, because I want it

Want it all of the time

Don't you wonder sometimes what I want

Don't you sometimes think I just want your - cunt

I'd hate to think that romance is just a pose

But all I want to do is rip off your clothes

I'm a pervert

I like to hold you in my arms

You know I wouldn't do you harm

I never take advantage, in my book that's a sin

But somehow I find myself caressing your skin

Then there's one word on my mind and that word is - fuck
