"Summer Wind"

Visit "Summer Wind" on MotoLyrics.com

Anxious eyes wait by the window she waits she hears the wind blow
Taking all she has cause she knows it's a cold summer
wind
No it's not the first time her heart feels like the last time
A never ending bad rhyme like a cold summer wind Can't you see what I've been through all I've done I've done for you Can't you see your world won't end it's just the summer
[guitar]
Daddy's once a week girl the only one in my world Dry your eyes and comb your sweet curls I'll be coming back again
Yeah your mom and I both know everyday you live we all grow
Only God can make the wind blow like a warm summer
wind
Can't you see what I've been through...
[steel]
I know you want us back together I know what we've put you through
When you hear the wind blow it'll bring us close to you Can't you see what I've been through...
Can't you see what I've been through...
