Now that you're going I'm feeling so alone, Ringing your number but you're not picking up the phone,
Gave you my heart and I gave my soul,
I guess sometimes you gotta live and let go,
I just wanna put things right, done with the lying I'm begging on my knees
I wanna smile in your face, don't wanna see you cryin', Cause you're the one for me,

Don't think I'll let it go, I need to... stone, I won't stop ringing until you're picking up your telephone,
I know you're out there somewhere, I just wanna bring you home,
Yes I love you, but now, I'm feeling so alone.

[Chorus:]
I'm so alone, pick up the phone,
I just wanna hear you say hello,
Want you to stay, the things I said,
I can't live my life alone, can't live my life alone,
I just can't live my life alone, no no no no, can't live my life alone.

Without you here can't you see,
Looking at old pictures of you and me,
I know you've heard it all before, but it's a new me Tossing and turning all night getting no sleep,
I wish I could turn back time, taking back to the way it was,
With all the smiles and laughter,
Back in my hands like the end of a fairytale,
I barely have a...

Don't think I'll let it go, I need to... stone,
I won't stop ringing until you're picking up your
telephone,
I know you're out there somewhere, I just wanna bring
you home,
Yes I love you, but now, I'm feeling so alone.

[Chorus:]

I'm so alone, pick up the phone,
I just wanna hear you say hello,
Want you to stay, the things I said,
I can't live my life alone, can't live my life alone,
I just can't live my life alone, no no no no, but I can't live my life alone.

You walked out of my life, I'm looking up at the time,
Twelve thirty didn't think I'd be writing these rhymes,
I should have seen...

You said you put you beside, these lies, you know it's right

Got back from work, I don't know why I felt something was wrong,

Got through the door, up the stairs and found that all her stuff was gone,

You even left that ring I got you for your sixteen

You left without a reason, baby how could this be

Live alone, without you, it just don't feel like home.

[Chorus:]

I'm so alone, pick up the phone,
I just wanna hear you say hello,
Want you to stay, the things I said,
I can't live my life alone, can't live my life alone,
I just can't live my life alone, no no no no, but I can't live
my life alone.

Can't live my life alone.
