I'm sitting here thinking, with my head on the wall Trying to figure out what it's gonna be It's been about a year and a month
Living in a black hole
This misery's got me parel for so long Yeah, so tired of being stressed, out fexed and pressed
My god, tell me lord where I gotta go
Yes, cause it's time to make a change, whoa
I know, cause I'll never be the same

Yeah, it's the trials of life that make a man grow strong
So you should never let your mind tell you what you feel
Just willing to happen, and it can't be done
If you're having a dream, then you gotta make it come true
Sure we like crabs in a barrel, everybody trying to make a come up
And at the same time, pulling each other down
Oh, but I gotta make a break out, gotta make a break out
Some way, and let love, show me the way
Oh yes
Cause it's time to make a change, whoa baby
Cause I'll never be the same, whoa baby
It's time to make a change, whoa yeah
You know, cause I'll never be the same, no,
Cause it's time to make a change,
Darling, a change, yeah, oh baby
Cause I'll never be the same.
