I like to think about all the fun we had
Up on a cloud, never thought we would fall Back to the world, gravity pulled us down then it tore us apart
Why can't things turn out like you wanted?

I never want to take away from you
I feel like you're flying and I'm weighing you down
You should be free to be, go for now
Maybe the second time around will be sweeter

Oh, think it over
Think it over
Oh, think it over
Think it over
Oh, think it over

So we was gonna be forever
Like King and Coretta, I thought we could change the world
But I needed air, I stepped out on the balcony
And the world took me out

But you know I'll always have a thing for you
And if I deny it I'll be lying to myself
I pick up the phone, put it down but I've been asking around
And I hear you're doing better now

Oh, think it over
Think it over
Oh, think it over
Think it over
Oh, think it over

There will always
Always be a hole in my heart, always be a hole Always be a hole in my heart, always be a hole in my heart
Always be a hole in my heart, always be a hole

They'll be a, a special place

I'll keep a special place for you
And I'll keep it safe, oh, I'll keep it safe for you
If you can wait for me, oh, just wait and see

I will always, I will always have a place
I will always have a hole in my heart
I'll always have a hole
