"In My Eye"

In my eye it follows me.
Reminding me that I can see.
In my eye its always there.
Look at me, look at me, look at me, that I am there.
In my eye (in my eye), a swollen dot (a swollen dot) keeps me sane (keeps me sane) when Im not (when Im not).
In my eye (in my eye) its always there (its always there) reminding me, reminding me, reminding me,
watching me there.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Then she tells me that she has one too.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Then she tells me.
In my eye it follows me.
Reminding me what Ill never be.
In my eye its always there watching me, watching me,
watching me until Im there and they know where.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Then she tells me that she has one too.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Then she tells me that they got her too.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Then she tells me that she has one too.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Its just theres nothing I can do.
Then she tells me that they got her too.
