Look at this courageous young men their lifeless bodies are lying in the streets shot down by machine guns their only weapon was the truth a peacefull fight they fought for freedom and liberty the marched A cry for liberty
the world just can't ignore
A cry for liberty
Why do we ignore Again and again

people aree opressed violence is religion-injustice is the law did we learn what they thought? a hopeless fight they fought astonished we stood still they had to pay the bill They stood up for their rights they chose a peaceful fight their words were just ignored their hopes died by the swor
