Out in the cold-a dying world the human race is lost now there's no god to save this world now we'll have to pay the price rotten natures, infected place no way out of this maze We keep feeding the machinery the world is bleeding our humanity we keep feeding our insanity Go die-if you will never learn don't cry-when you see there's no return

So we destroy what we need to live we hit what we should pay attention to Rivers green-the trees are dead poisoned air the sky turns black now there's no one there to cry now we all will die We keep feeding the macinery
the world is bleeding our humanity
