"I'll Be Ok"

I will throw myself down at your feet
I will live out my life on my knees
You alone I run too
No one helps me like you

I'll be ok when I'm safe in your arms
And the thoughts of this world fade away
I'll be ok with you

I'll be ok when it's you by my side
And the tears of this life wipe away

I'll be ok with you
I'll be ok

I will lay down my pride for your grace
I will give anything for one look
One look at your face
You alone I run to
No one helps me like you

I'll be
I'll be
I'll be ok with you
I'll be
I'll be
I'll be ok
