I was lost but now I'm found
And my world revolves around You
I was far away and now
My world revolves around You

Jesus, my world without an end
No mind can comprehend
Though I keep trying
Jesus, my faith has found Your love
My hope has found its trust
My heart will beat the sound
My world revolves around

Though the sky should touch the ground My world revolves around You
I surrender, You surround
When my world revolves around You

Now my eyes are fixed on You
And I can't look away
Cause all this heart was made to do is to offer highest praise
My praise, praise, my praise
