It's so nice to meet an old friend and pass the time of day
And talk about the hometown a million miles away
Is the ice still on the river are the old folks still the same
And by the way did she mention my name
Did she mention my name just in passing And when the morning came do you remember if she cried a tear or two Is the homestead still on fire do they still win all their games
And by the way did she mention my name
[ steel - guitar ]
Is the landlord still a loser do his signs hang in the hall
Are the young girls still as pretty in the city in the fall Does the laughter on their faces still put the sun to shame
And by the way did she mention my name
And when the talk ran high did the look in her eyes seem far away Won't you say hello for someone there'll be no need to explain
And by the way did she mention my name oh by the way did she mention my name
