I've seen the way you've looked at her ever since you've got to town You've wondered if she's married and if she is does she fool around Well look a little closer at the third finger on her left hand
That's the wedding ring she's wearin' and her wedding
ring's a one man band
Her wedding ring's a one man band
She don't make pretty music with anyone but me you understand understand
The only song that she knows how to sing is Stand By Your Man
Her wedding ring's a one man band [trumpet]
I bet she knows the words to every verse of I Walk The Line
She ain't never heard Your Cheatin' Heart or the Wild Side Of Life Heaven's Not A Sin Away and Backstreets Affair ain't in her plans
That's the wedding ring she's wearin' and her wedding
ring's a one man band
Her wedding ring's a one man band..
Her wedding ring's a one man band..
