I'LL BRING MORE FLOWERS

(Bill Anderson - Bobby Russell)

© '70 Stallion Music

We used to talk together remember
And we used to do things crazy things I guess Like just walking around lookin' in windows
When we knew we couldn't buy anything Not with the baby comin' at all
And sometimes when it rained you'd sit beside me
And we'd race raindrops down the window pane You'd bring me coffee and we'd work crossword puzzles together
We don't do anything together now
And late at night remember we used to sit outside
And we'd watch the clouds scurrin' across the moon
And the fishing trips you never did like fishing but you did anyway
I loved you for it and dreams all I must've had a million of 'em
Big dreams and plans and you used to look at me and you say You'll make it I know you will and I believed it cause you believed it
You had faith in me and you always gave me the strength that I needed
But now it's over I used to look at your hair I used to hold you and kiss you I used to It was a stupid reason for an argument We'd have a million of 'em before but this time you just ran out
And when the phone rang and they told me
Oh I'd've given anything if it'd be me instead I'll be back tomorrow honey I'll bring more flowers
You always did like flowers
