LOVIN' PAINS

(Ned Miller)

© '65 Central Songs

Lovin' pains wrapped around me like a chain
I will never be the same because of lovin' pains
I have fallen in love in the sunshine fallen in love in the rain
Love can burn but I'll never learn I'm falling in love again
Lovin' pains wrapped around me like a chain
I will never be the same because of lovin' pains
Well I looked in her eyes and saw a promise
Her sweet lips whispered my name
She leaned in close and gave me one last kiss
And left on the midnight train
Lovin' pains wrapped around me like a chain...
Yes I have fallen in love
