I said goodbye to the blues the day I met you
All the silly little tears I cried for her have drown
And the heartaches that she caused me now have ended
And there's no signs of loneliness around.

No signs of loneliness since loving you
No signs of anything to make me blue
I love this happiness that I have found
And there's no signs of loneliness around.

--- Instrumental ---

I know she's happy thinking I still need her
That I'm drowning in the river of tears since she left town
If only she could see that I'm so happy
And there's no signs of loneliness around.

No signs of loneliness since loving you
No signs of anything to make me blue
I love this happiness that I have found
And there's no signs of loneliness around.

No there's no signs of loneliness around...
