"Old Me And You"

It feels like the old me and you again it feels like the
old me and you
The clouds're gone and the sun's shining through
And it feels like the old me and you

This is where it was before it got to where it is
And I like it better here than where it's been Love the way it should be lust the way it could be
All the time and now's the time to me began
It's feeling like it felt it before the feeling went away
And let me feeling nothing down inside
And I'm living out the life that I started out to live
When you used to live with me before love dies
And it feels like the old me and you...
[piano]
It feels like the old me and you...
