All day long it's been rainin' at my place all day long there's been water on my face
All day long the phone ain't rung the door ain't knocked and the mail ain't come
And I'm the biggest bum is the human race
But tomorrow's gonna be better than today
Winds of love gonna blow the lonely clouds away I'm gonna find me someone new I'm gonna wash my brain of you
Tomorrow's gonna be better than today [steel]
Ain't no man ever missed a woman quite so strong Flipped his lid the way I did and carried on Beat my fist on the bedroom wall shook the plaster loose in the hall
And the reason for it all my baby's gone
But tomorrow's gonna be better...
[guitar]
First thing I'm gonna do in the mornin' shine my shoes Swear to the world I ain't gonna catch me no more blues
I'm gonna sing like a mockingbird happy love in every word
Forget I ever heard your bad bad news
And tomorrow's gonna be better...
Yes tomorrow's gonna be better...
