WHICH BRIDGE TO CROSS (WHICH BRIDGE TO BURN)

Writer Bill Anderson, Vince Gill

RECORDED BY VINCE GILL

I've got two lovers in my life now
A true love and one that's brand new I'm not really sure that I know how To love one and tell one we're through
I can't sleep at night,
I toss and turn I keep losing sight of lessons
I've learned I'm standing at the crossroads
with just one concern
Which bridge to cross and which bridge to burn
I knew this was wrong, I didn't listen
Cause a heart only knows what feels right
Oh I need to reach a decision
And get on with the rest of my life
I can't sleep at night,
I toss and turn I keep losing sight of lessons
I've learned I'm standing at the crossroads
with just one concern
