

Despondent "No Relent"

Win their hearts and win their minds,
Everyone gets left behind,

Still alive I guess,
More or less,
Least I think I was the last time that I checked,
And this ringing in my head,
Reminds me that I'm blessed,
Or cursed to fight this war until it's bitter end,

Like the wind to the trees,
Like the shore to the sea's
I will always fight them,
They will always fight me,

Win their hearts and win their minds,
Everyone gets left behind,
Win their hearts and win their minds,
Everyone gets left behind,

Win their hearts and win their minds,
Lost our hearts and lost our minds,
Everyone gets left behind,

Like the wind to the trees,
Like the shore to the sea's
I will always fight them,
They will always fight me,
They will always,
They will always fight me.
