It was me and you against the world
Now it's the world with you against me
This is cruel, this is mean it is not fair
Remember the times in your bed and in my car
We never cried we laughed instead
Made me feel proud now it makes me feel so sad

But if you'd talk to me
I would say that I'm fine
If you would talk to me
I am sure I would lie

But I would like to destroy
Everything that I've got
It's not important to me anymore
I'm on the quest for something
And I don't know what it is
It's a fight against my
Inner emptiness

I'm all alone you're spending time
With my old friends you're doing fine
They're feeling good, I am down
'Cause I still want you to be mine
It all went wrong, but just for me
Not for you, you are ok,
I want you back
'Cause you're my baby and I'm like dead
I'm like dead

But if you'd talk to me
I would say that I'm fine
If you would talk to me
I am sure I would lie

But I would like to destroy
Everything that I've got
It's not important to me anymore
I'm on the quest for something
And I don't know what it is
It's a fight against my
Inner emptiness

How can I
Ever laugh without you, baby
How can I
Ever smile without you
How can I
Spend my time without you, Baby
How can I
Live my life without you
