You think I like you
But I swear it's just because I'm a fake
We do like we're friends
But I see you going down in my dreams
So you can think about
The so repulsive person you made
I liked the kid in you
You're like the evil image of yourself

So please stop to ask me about why I'm leaving
I explained everything that I could
I dislike you because of some reasons
But there is nothing between me and you

You're sympathetic to me
Oh it is a long time ago
Now you're pathetic to me
I enjoy the sight that is shown
I try to hide the truth
There's something in me
It will come out
It's out of envy and
The worst thing is I think you found out

So please stop to ask me about why I'm leaving
I explained everything that I could
I dislike you because of some reasons
