I fix my eyes, look out the window
Tell me how I've been lost for so long
I can't let go
Can you try and do your best to wake me?
Cause I'm in the calm before the storm
So wake me up
Yeah wake me up

I come back to life again
The closest I've ever been
Return to where I began and it's bliss in the end
If you'll find me there

Wake
Wake me up

Back when days were passing me by
Never thought I'd be the one to stall
We never stopped
Now I'm longing for a brandnew sunrise
Well the tables turned after all
Oh wake me up
Have I been sleeping with my eyes open?
Tell me is this the end

Wake me, this fight is not over
Maybe in the end it could bring us closer
Looking back in hindsight
Longing for a car ride
Back to where it all began
