I feel time is coming
And it shows I haven't been quite the same
I see walls are falling
But my patience's driving me insane
And it's so clear
It's time we're gonna run dear
No fear tonight

So bring me all your love
You know it's not too hard to achieve
With everything that is in me
So just tell me what you're after
Oh it's time you better believe
It's everything that is in me
Right now

So tell me what you're thinking
Tell me what your secret's about
Won't you save me from sinking
Save me by saying out loud
That it's so clear
Tonight we're gonna run dear
No fear tonight

Now I hope this is not too late to Figure it out somehow
No I wouldn't ever sit and wait to Watch it all crash down
You can take and take whatever you want
You can take and take whatever you need

So bring me all your love
You know it's not too hard to achieve
With everything that is in me
So just tell me what you're after
Is it all just make believe
It's everything that is in me
