Here it comes, sinking in, building up inside of me
I'm holding on to the things that I wish that I could be But I'm tired of running, standing still Oh if I could learn to close my eyes maybe this could be real

I need a little bit o' luck tonight before I burn out Or take a minute when it all comes down and hear my heart die out
Just a little bit too much tonight before our time is through
I need a little bit o' luck tonight from you

Ever stronger than before, feel it weakening my knees
And I run, I'm longing for all the things that I can't reach
As I find what isn't there, oh unclarity it makes me blind
I wish I'd read between the lines

Uncertainty, or is it me
All I can see, oh it's a masterpiece
Anxiety, it's weakening me
All that I see, oh it's a masterpiece
I see you in my marrow
