We're caught in the crossfire as the flames come rushing in
A vain attempt to reach a spark
And now your hands got tied, don't know where to begin to find your way back in the dark

Keep me by your side and illuminate the sky
So keep me by your side, we'll pretend that we're alive

We're caught in the crossfire as the flames come
rushing in
A dire attempt to reach a spark
And when there's nobody listening, they don't know where you have been to find your way back in the dark

Keep me by your side and illuminate the sky
So keep me by your side, we'll pretend that we're alive

Now the door is locked, can't find the key Waiting for a melody, remedy
One that will bring you back to me
If I could turn the tide, cross the sea Craving for a melody, remedy
One that will take my breath away
Oh won't you take my breath away

Keep me by your side and illuminate the sky
So keep me by your side, we'll pretend that we're alive
Keep me by your side and illuminate the sky
So keep me by your side, we'll pretend that we're alive

Keep me by your side
(keep me by your side)
(keep me by your side)
