When it's dark, a melody
In my mind that's slowly whispering your name
I turn a blind eye
To a spark, a memory
When you lit the sky and left me like a flame
Before we said goodbye

And the rain keeps falling
Can you hear me calling
With every minute now the memories of you are fading
It leaves me with a question
Where are you now

I've gone miles all around
Saw a hundred different places that I
Didn't think I'd ever go
It wasn't long before I found
That you covered up your traces in reply
Now I'm sure I'll never know

And the rain keeps falling
Can you hear me calling
With every minute now the memories of you are fading
It leaves me with a question
Where are you now

Tell me are you far from me
Give me just one clue on where I should be
The one and only chance to show me where to begin

When it's dark, a melody
In my mind I'm slowly whispering your name
I turn a blind eye

And the rain keeps falling
Can you hear me calling
With every second now the memory of you is fading
It leaves me with a question
Where are you now
Where are you now
Where are you now

Where are you now
Where are you

It leaves me with a question
Where are you now?
