Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh

Last summer's footprints are walkin'
Walkin' dove walkin' dove walkin' dove walkin' dove
Through last summer's sand
A dove walkin' dove walkin' dove walkin' dove

And where the footprints end
Where the footprints end
What happened then?
Where the footprints end?

Was not a wave that swallowed them
No gust of wind that did them so
No, where the footprints end
We must have flown!

Yea we must have flown
Over tint and sea
Yea we must have flown
Heavier than air
Our heart and brain
[Incomprehensible]
Lookin' at rings

The sea above, the sky below
We must have flown
Where the footprints end

And when we realize we can't fly
Will we say
"Do you think we must have danced up into the sky?"

Last summer's footprints are walkin'
Walkin' dove walkin' dove walkin' dove
Through last summer's sand
