The feeling of the danger can get it all around It comes from the stranger that strange feeling sound The order from the leader can put it all to rest Don't look out for tomorrow with that pain in your chest

Balance of terror
Balance of terror

You can run but you can't hide
'cause the land stands open wide
Try to get together with your friends and mates and together break the line
A flash! Crash!
A flash! Crash!
The danger comin' near Get down on the ground and forget
The sound and try not to show your fear

Balance of terror
Balance of terror

The bright light in the night tells me the balance has been moved The fear of the force that kills, grinds and wounds Why vote for unification the score's already set They say you will be happy without any regrets

Balance of terror
Balance of terror

You can run but you can't hide
friends and mates and together break the line

A flash! Crash!
A flash! Crash!
Get down on the ground and forget
The sound and try not to show your fear
