Kill The Witch

She's the witch in my heart.
And she tore it apart.
She's the evil in my mind.
Oh no! Can love be so blind.
She got me in her spell.
I know I'm trapped in hell.
She caught me with her eyes.
And now I'm captured by her lies.

Kill, kill the witch.
She's the evil dressed in black.
I said: "Die! Die, die bitch."
There is no way of turning back.

She shows no respect.
She doesn't think I suspect anything she has done.
But one day I will be gone.
She got me in control
until I've found my soul.
She took my future.
I have to kill the creature.
