Secret roses on her locker
Who could it be
She's so in love with him
Does he even know she's alive
Everytime he comes near her heart pumps faster and faster

He got her so crazy
But she's so lazy
Doesn't want to talk to him
Thinks she'll say a stupid thing
Na na na
Na na na

He's putting the roses on her locker
He's so in love with her
Does she even know he's a live

Everytime she comes near

His heart pumps faster and faster

She got him so crazy
But he's so lazy
Doesn't want to talk to her
Thinks he'll say a stupid thing
Na na na
Na na na

No they know
Coz they're friends told
And now they're living happily ever after

What were they thinking
Not telling the truth
And now they joke about it
All the time
And time again
