How many times
Are you going to apologize about the same thing
And how many times can I take it back
When I'm not the one who's doing wrong (When I'm not the ones doing wrong no)
I thought that maybe if I started praying
That we would get better but

That I would make some changes
But the more I change

Ohhhh

CHORUS

Let me break it down
Have you ever loved somebody?
So much that you was just too blind to see, past
All of the pain, that they was causing you
Ladies, do you feel me? (do you feel me?)
Have you ever loved somebody?
So much that you went against the right thing
That you should do (do)
OHH, OHHH
Then it's time to make a change (time to make a change)
So I
