Theme: Mike

She's wearing white again but colours always betray
Don't look into her eyes, there's an evil darkness inside

Theme: Mike

You might see her but she is not here
Leave her alone don't get to near
One touch and you'll disappear
What a scream you'll never hear

She carries a secret
And where she must go...you'll never know

Solo: Mike

She carries a secret
And where she must go...you'll never know

Solo: Andy - theme: Mike

Searching but not for a home
A restless soul all on its own
Always dressed in white
As she passes on through the night

She carries a secret
And where she must go...you'll never know

Solo: Mike - Andy - Mike - Andy - Mike

She carries a secret
And where she must go...you'll never know
